

MEDIA FACT SHEET

1. The 2019 Riebeek Valley Olive Festival will be held on 4 & 5 May 2019.
2. Approximately 10 000 - 12 000 festival goers excluding children are anticipated.
3. The Riebeek Valley Olive Festival was started in 2000 in Riebeek Kasteel to celebrate the end of a good olive harvest and to promote the then small olive industry in the Riebeek Valley.
4. As it has grown substantially over the years, it has clearly positioned the valley as an authentic and award winning olive oil producer.
5. The Riebeek Valley Olive Festival is considered to be one of the biggest festivals in the Western Cape and seeks to celebrate olives and wine as well as the local diversity which the Riebeek Valley has become known for.
6. It has huge brand equity and is the only Olive Festival of its size in the country.
7. Since 2012, the number of oil olives harvested has increased by 60% and the table olives processed by 100% in the Riebeek Valley.
8. Kloovenburg, Het Vlock Casteel and Olive Boutique form part of the Golden Olive Triangle.
9. The Riebeek Valley Olive Festival offers an authentic, local and memorable Valley experience with a diverse array of locally produced olive and olive related products as well as wine, craft beer, food, local entertainment and locals.
10. As in the past, entrance to the festival will be in the form of a Weekend passport for R125 or a Sunday Pass for R80 which ensures a complimentary glass of wine or water and access to all the participating venues. Swartland hospitality at its best.

11. Passports can be bought at www.riebeekvalleyolivefestival.co.za or at each of the participating venues or Riebeek Valley Tourism on the day.

12. It is a two day event that takes place at 7 different venues between twin towns Riebeek Kasteel and Riebeek West. The 7 participating venues in the festival are:

- Meerhof Winery
- Kloovenburg Wine and Olive Estate
- Het Vlock Casteel
- The Olive Boutique
- Riebeek Cellars
- The Riebeek Kasteel Town Square.
- Pulpit Rock.
- Festival goers are encouraged to go and experience the festival at each of the various venues, where the experience is quite different depending on where you go. There is an array of award winning olives, olive oils and olive related products, lifestyle stalls, crafts, mouth-watering food, kids entertainment and live bands at most of the venues.

13. Tractors, at a cost, of R5 take festival goers to and from Kloovenburg, Het Vlock Casteel and Olive Boutique. There is Shuttle Service to Pulpit Rock, Meerhof and Riebeek Cellars from the Square.

14. Festival goers are encouraged to make use of the ample parking and to walk to the designated venue.

15. While the Riebeek Valley is extremely dog and kiddie friendly, no dogs are allowed at the venues due to sheer numbers of people at the festival.
16. The festival is run by The Riebeek Valley Olive Festival committee, the owners of the 7 venues.
